

LONDON MUSEUMS

There are a lot of great museums in London. The most popular are:

- British Museum
- Natural History Museum
- Science Museum

The NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM presents the history of the Earth.

Skeletons of dinosaurs are there.

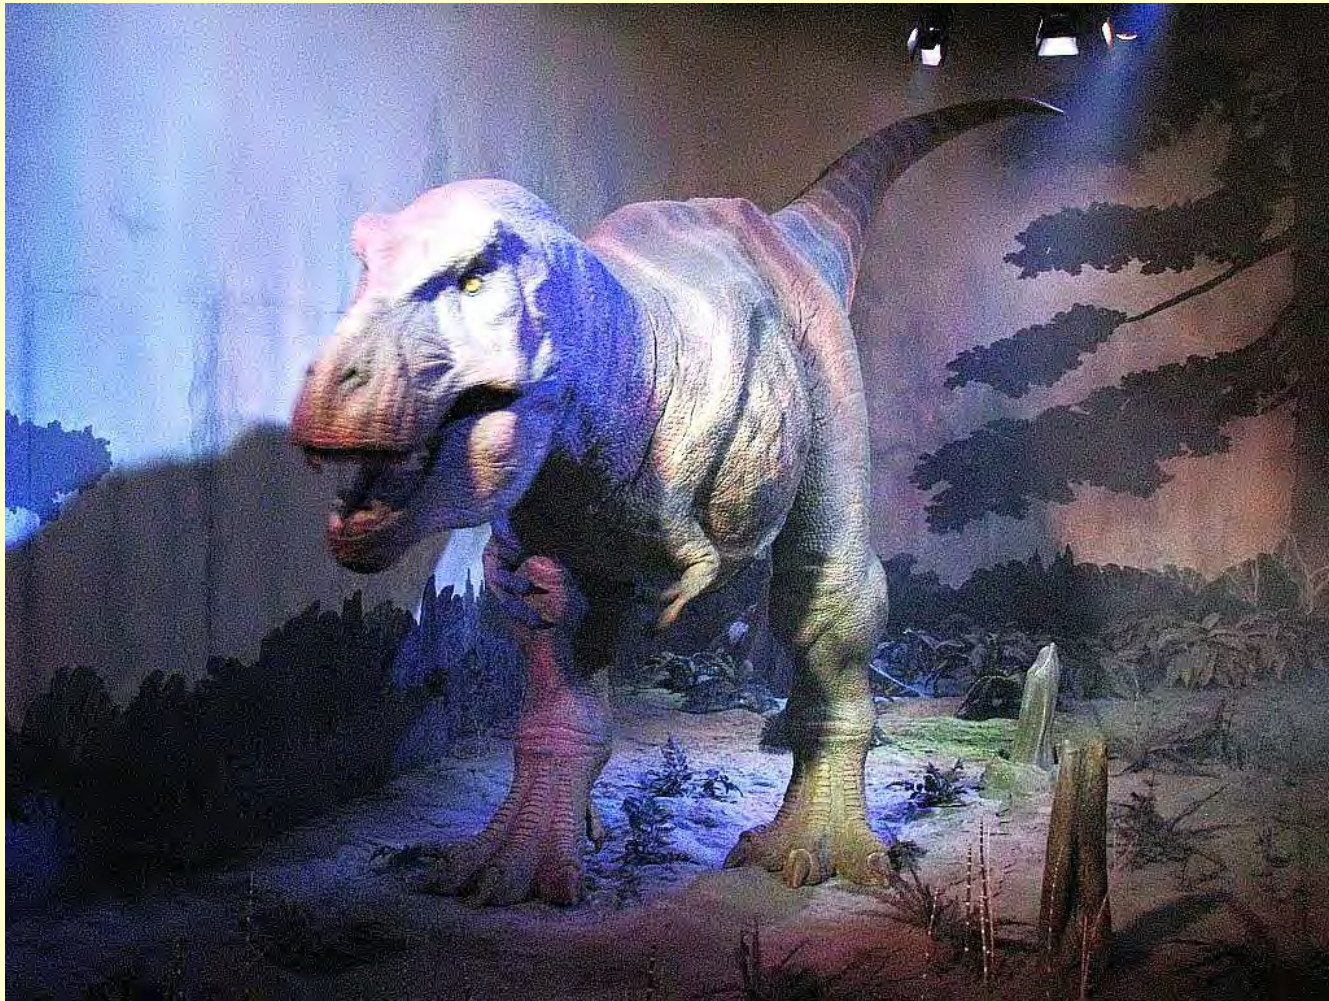

- skeleton - szkielet

other prehistoric animals

- prehistoric - prehistoryczny

This dinosaur can walk and roar.

- roar - ryczeć

dinosaur's eggs

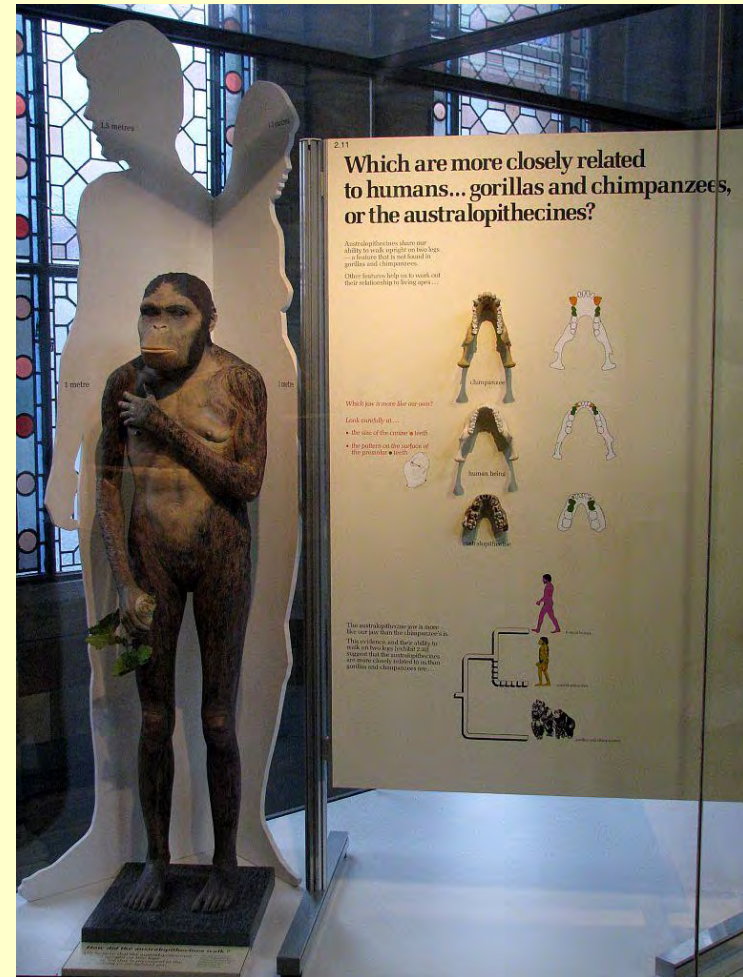

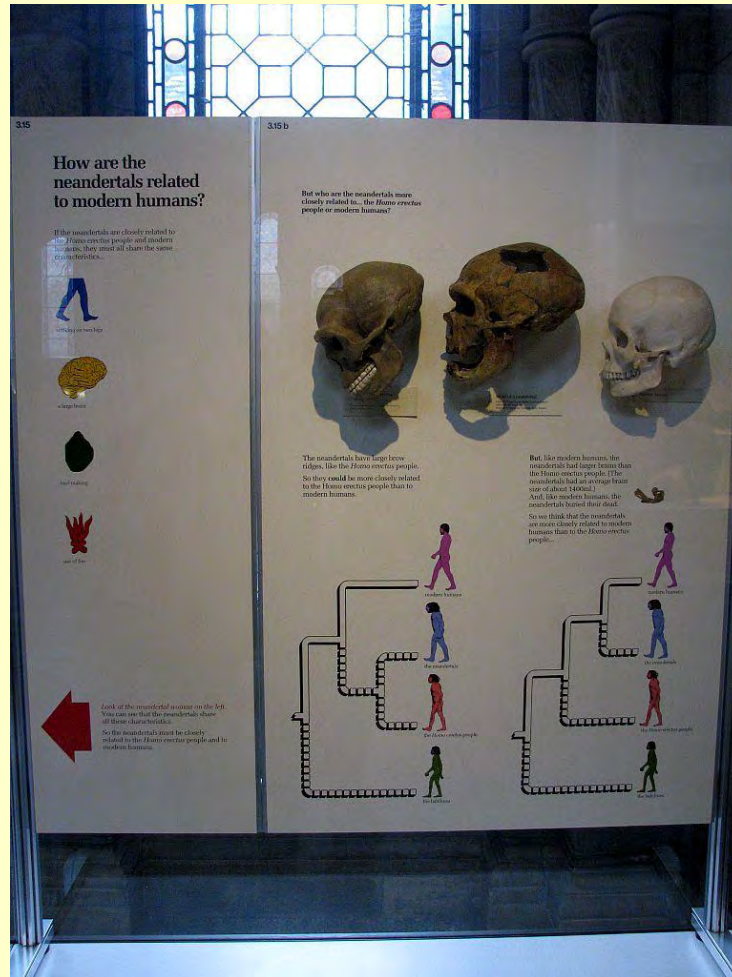

This tree was a few metres thick.

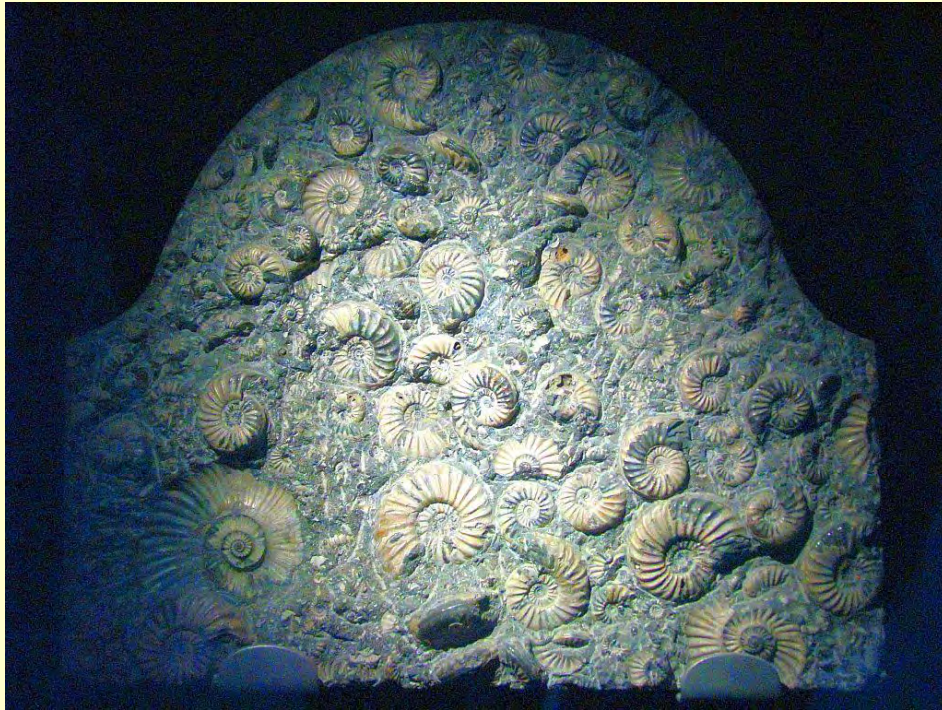

- a few – kilka
- thick – gruby

The Natural History Museum also shows the history of humans...

- human – istota ludzka

...and some interesting rocks

- rock - skała

one of the entrances to the Natural History Museum

- entrance - wejście

The SCIENCE MUSEUM - the history of science and technology

- science – nauka
- technology – technika

a big hall in the Science Museum

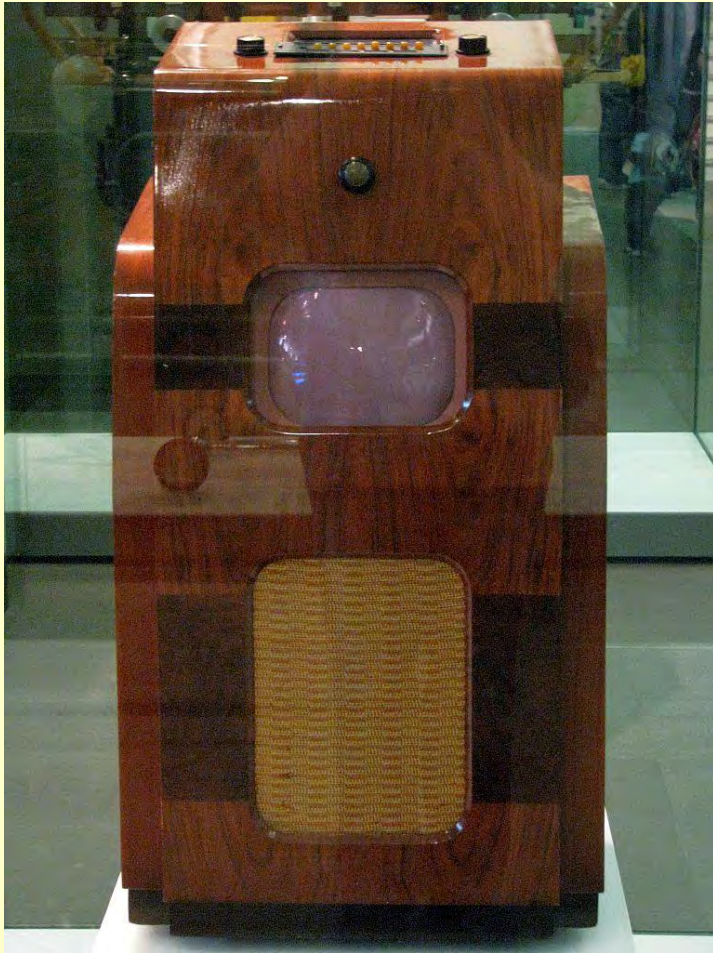

old vehicles

- vehicle - pojazd

old TVs

an old record player and tape recorders

- record player – gramofon, odtwarzacz płyt
- tape recorder – magnetofon

Astronauts travelled to the moon in it.

- the moon - księżyc

And they wore this costume.

mathematical display

- display - wystawa

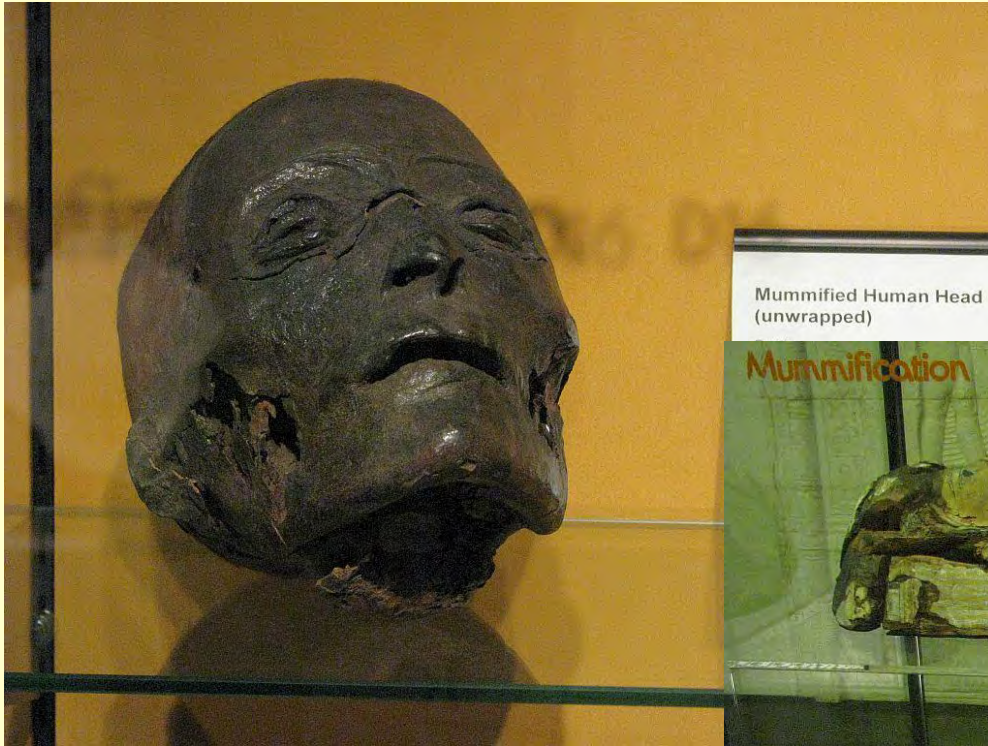

old calculators

old clocks

history of medicine - mummies

Mummified Human Head
(unwrapped)

- mummy - mumia

history of farming – potato-lifting

- potato-lifting - wykopki

In the BRITISH MUSEUM
you can see ancient art.

- ancient – starożytny
- art – sztuka

Assyrian sculptures

- sculpture - rzeźba

animals with human heads (Assyria)

Lion hunt (Assyria)

- hunt – polować, polowanie

Assyrian writing

The art of ancient Egypt

statue of an Egyptian pharaoh

- pharaoh - faraon

part of an Egyptian tomb

- part – część
- tomb - grobowiec

ancient Greek art

Greek jugs...

- jug – dzban

...were beautifully decorated

other Greek vessels

- vessel - naczynie

the oldest coins and a tomb

- coin - moneta

Roman statues

- statue - posąg

Some museums in London are small but interesting. This is Sherlock Holmes museum.

Thank you.

- tekst i zdjęcia: Beniamin Galicki